DEDICATION

WARREN C. BURNHAM

All of us here at Brighton High School were deeply shocked and saddened at the death of Warren C. Burnham, placement director for the cooperative course.

A graduate of Worcester Trade, he first began teaching automotive mechanics at Brighton High in 1920. As a teacher, he was greatly respected by both the faculty and student body, and was considered a friend by everyone who knew him.

He was a navy veteran of World War I and was elected first commodore of the Watertown Yacht Club, because of his great seamanship. Becoming director of the placement program in 1954, he helped to find suitable career jobs for the graduates of the cooperative course. Much of their success today is due to the concern and understanding of Mr. Burnham.

We, at Brighton High, can never fully express our deep sorrow over the loss of one of our finest teachers. What we can do is remember him as he was — teacher, gentleman, friend. It is in the memory of Warren C. Burnham that we, the class of 1969, dedicate our yearbook.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Mrs. Garvey, Gothic Advisor, Caren Rubin, Editor-in-chief

"During the past three years, there has been a great deal of change in our world. This yearbook is an attempt to capture in words and pictures the most memorable moments of our high school experience.

We have seen modernization of our school in the form of a public address system, several updated classrooms in the Business department, institution of data processing, new courses, and modern audio-visual equipment. Even our dress codes have changed to accommodate the times in which we are living.

Our students have displayed great restraint in a troubled year. This, I believe, reflects the high level of communication between faculty and students at Brighton High.

I hope that when you look back upon this yearbook you will recall your own change from an adolescent to a young adult."

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

Mr. M. Henry McInerney

"Some years ago, a great industrial corporation sponsored a television program which featured the slogan, 'Progress is our most important product.' This slogan might well be the motivating force in the lives of members of a high school graduating class. Certainly, if an individual does not move forward, he will slip backward, for there is not such status as a stand-still position on the treadmill of life.

Each graduate must, therefore, progress so as to avoid regression; and certainly in these days, the opportunities are more numerous than ever before. The world is pleading for young men and women to qualify in the multitudinous and varied vocations, and society offers the individual help and encouragement for success. All one needs is the spirit of ambition, determination, and perseverance to insure great rewards.

In the trades, the need is great for skilled workers, and the pay is big; in technology, there is a scarcity of skilled technicians. Industry will not only welcome ambitious young men or women, but train them. Business holds out its arms to honest, hard working, and talented young folks. Finally, the professions offer unlimited opportunities.

The important factor for all to remember is that different from the other, and each must be the master of his own career. It is true that reverses and disappointments will cross your path from time to time, but the Lord has ways of seeing things through for those who have faith in Him.

So do not let discouragement rule your mind or wreck your ambition for a successful career. Seek out a goal for yourself and work hard to achieve it. Remember that success comes to those who seek out opportunity and grasp it firmly."

M. Henry McInerney

REMEMBER

There were many surprising changes made in the faculty of Brighton High School this year. A number of teachers who had formerly taught here, went on to other highly successful jobs. We felt saddened at their departure and will always remember the impression which they left upon Brighton High School.

Miss O'Leary is now Head of the English Department at Girls' High School.

Mr. Feely, a graduate of Hyde Park High School, has returned there as Guidance Counselor.

Mr. Carty is now a Supervisor of Physical Education of Elementary Schools.

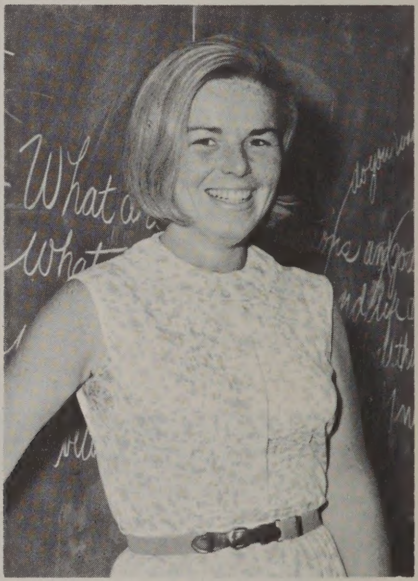
Mrs. Donovan is a coordinator in the work-study program.

Mr. Gosnell is teaching at Girls' Latin School.

Miss Morse

Miss Hurley

Mrs. Patterson is teaching at Mary E. Curley Jr. High School in Jamaica Plain.



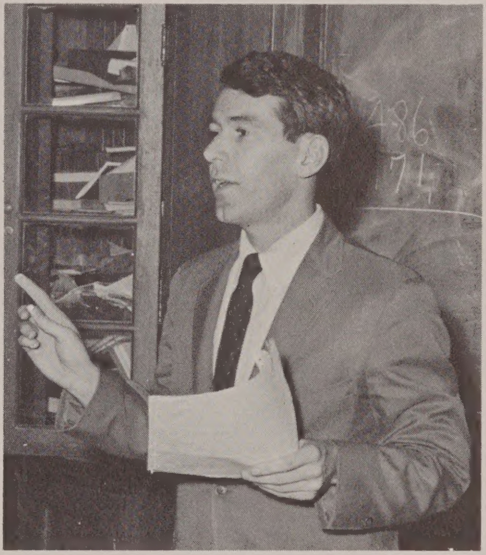
Miss Holland is teaching at Waltham High.

Mr. McDevitt is a member of the Boston School Committee.

Miss Cavanaugh is teaching in Ipswich.

Mrs. Green is teaching in a Junior College outside of St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Kurz



Mr. Ellison

Mr. Rose

Miss Moynihan is teaching at South Boston High School.

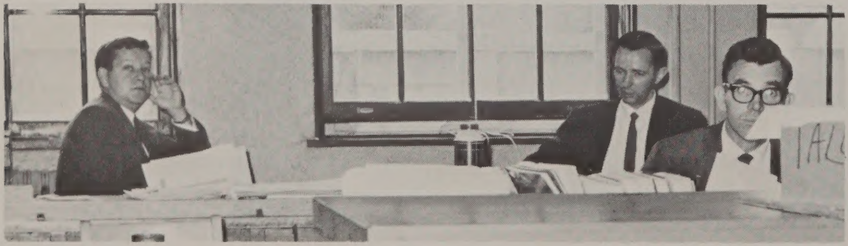
"Now, now, Mr. Flaherty!"

"Onward—to the lunchroom!"

"Hey, you!!"

"Is that a physics paper Mike??!"

"Please, don't take my picture."



"Where did you ever get those eyes?"

"As graduation approaches, we, the Class of 1969, are about to take an important step. There are many roads which we can pursue. Some of us will go on to higher education, while others will go into the Armed Forces, business or industry. No matter how challenging our life will become, let us accept our responsibilities. If we keep our body and mind in good physical and mental condition and use them to the utmost, our lives will be of great service to God and country. We will also feel a great sense of accomplishment and satisfaction to ourselves.

The Class of '69 will always remember its three years at B.H.S. There have been goodtimes when learning was enjoyable and unsettled times when learning was interrupted. But, our respect for each other has grown, regardless of race, creed, or color. We shall never forget the many friends we made at Brighton and our teachers who have patiently guided us.

Now, as we embark upon a new world, we carry with us the experiences and knowledge gained at Brighton High School."

Your class president,
Earl Garrett

SCIENCE FAIR

The students of Brighton High who are members of any of the science classes are, each year, required to participate in the Science Fair. The main purpose of this fair is to stimulate the creative scientific ability of a student. There are eight winners chosen from each school, and the prizes awarded range from honor certificates and books, to silver and gold medals received at Boston Latin School. All projects are judged mainly on originality, the depth of the subject, the research involved, the results achieved, and the ability of the student to explain his project.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Keith Jackson, Karen Banks

The Charlie Brown cast wishes us a Merry Christmas.

The shepherds sleep . . .

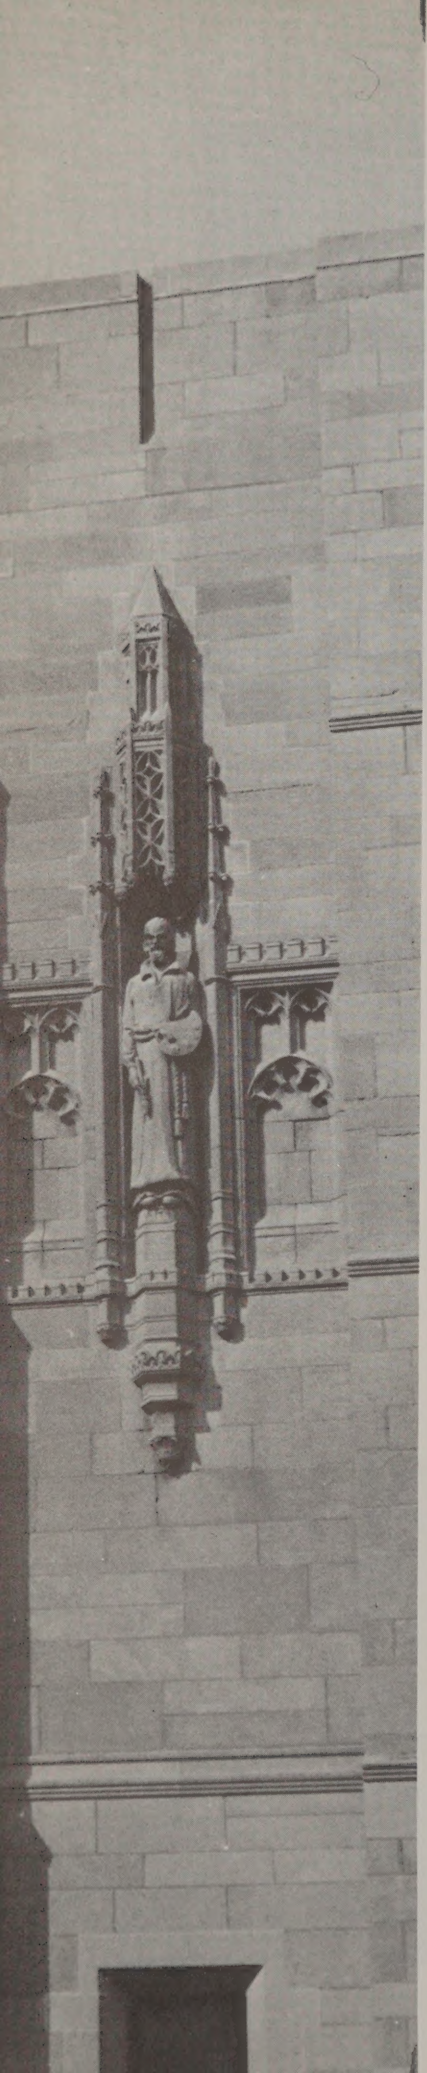
Christmas is a happy time.

"And then this huge, fat man came crashing through the roof . . ."

Andrea Saunders entertains

"There, there little tree."

"What the world needs now . . .!"



CLASS POEM

There is an image of a towering monument, formidable,
Yet magnificent, silhouetted against the sun.
Streams of thoughts flow into our minds—
Memories of the bewildering first days,
Of helpless groping through endless corridors,
And of the frustration of each science project.
We feel the lingering enchantment of each Christmas pageant,
And the triumphant joy of our team's victory.

With these cherished reflections of the past locked
In our hearts, we prepare to part
For another future—a future embracing challenges, hopes, and aspirations.
Undaunted by failure, we will strive on
With the utmost courage and patience,
For only one who struggles with life is truly admirable
Not one who resigns himself to defeat.

Now, with pangs of regret on leaving the past,
Yet with an optimistic outlook for the future,
We bid farewell.

CLASS ORATION

by

Demetrios Michaelides

In the past few years, man has come to the conclusion that one of the most important things he must possess is a sound education. Education is the systematic development or training of the mind, the vital force in a good society, creating order out of chaos and harmony out of anarchy. Only respect for this process makes it possible for free men to live together in peace and productive progress.

In an unstable world with its vast and growing problems, America's leadership must be guided by learning and by ethical reason. We know that everything changes therefore we must change also. We live in a period of movement and change, both revolutionary and evolutionary, both good and evil.

We call our country the United States of America. This name is glorified with meaning. It not only stands for the unification of the states, but also the unification of the people – people of different races, different faiths, different cultures, all having one common goal, the precious goal of freedom. Lately this meaning seems to have been confused. Our beautiful country appears divided. Few seem willing to compromise; many willing to protest.

We know the hope of tomorrow depends on us, the youth of today, to carry and make even brighter the torch of our forbearers. We can proudly say we are better educated, more committed, more passionately driven by conscience, than any other generation in our history. And because our moral strength is so great; we can approach the future with hope – the hope of developing the power and wisdom to enable the United States to continue as a true beacon of freedom for all.

CLASS WILL

In spite of all our exaggerated gripes and groans, the extraordinary class of "69", exhausted by our exuberant struggle as a diversified student body reluctantly leaves Brighton High with our best wishes for the future and these tokens of our appreciation:

We bequeath to Mr. McInerney a full year's subscription to the latest fashion magazines to show that we are really not "that bad" after all.

We leave to Mr. O'Brien a tow-truck so that he can move all the cars that are parked on the terrace.

Elizabeth Williams wills to the juniors the fun of being seniors next year and to the teachers her sympathy for the trouble they will be getting.

Paul McNeill leaves to all juniors a book entitled "The Art of Sneaking Cigarettes into the Lavatories", which he wrote himself.

Thornell Grant leaves to Mr. Cicciu a new engine room.

Timothy Norton wills to Mrs. Campbell a classroom of brilliant accountants.

Victoria Zagami bequeaths to Mr. McCormick a bottle of laughing gas.

Wanda Henderson leaves to Mrs. Boyle a new room full of typewriters that work.

Sharon Head bequeaths all her passing papers in business law to Mrs. Desautels

Raymond Grinnell wills to Mr. Najarian one meatball sub.

Andrea Gonsalves leaves Mr. Wilson all her priceless art work and to Miss Pembroke her excellent skill in typing.

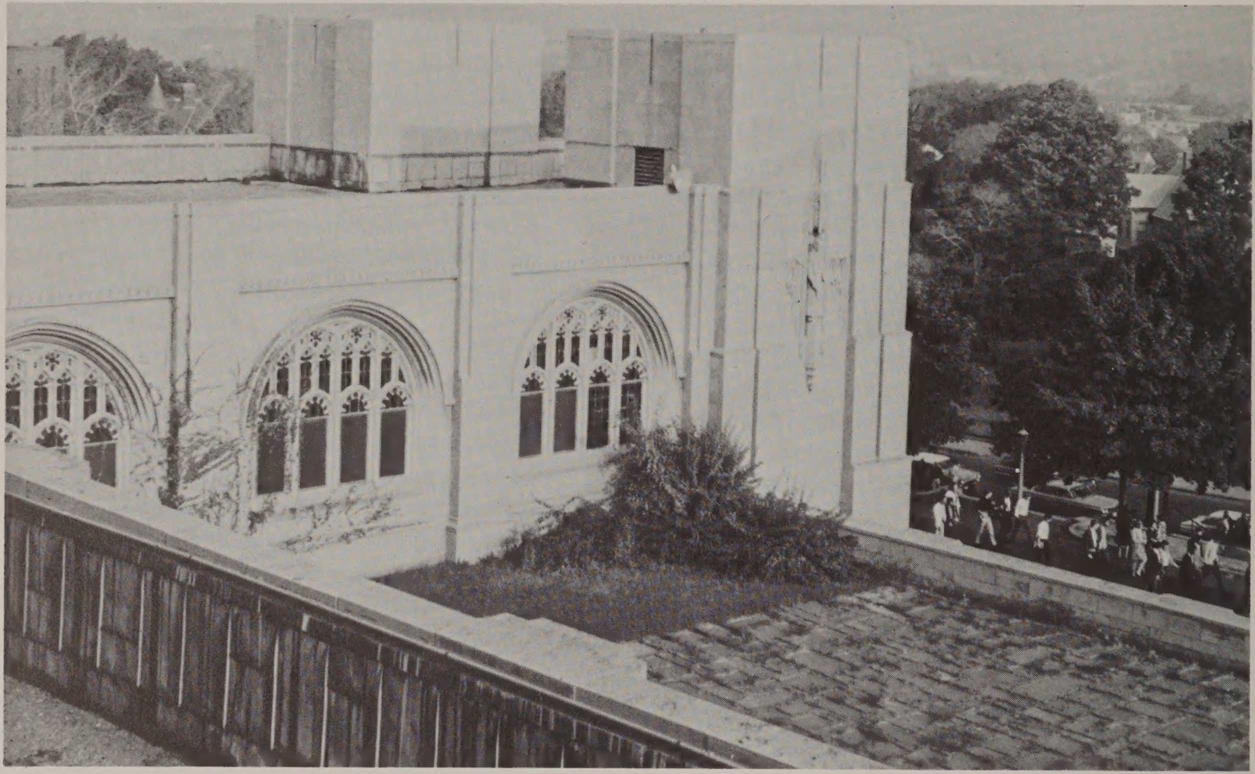
PROPHECY



It is a warm spring night in May, 1989, and the sound of laughter can be heard from the banquet hall of the Longwood Towers. Brighton High School's class of '69 is holding its reunion. Former classmates greet each other warmly and many are surprised at the changes in their old friends.

Earl Garrett, who was president of the senior class, took time out from teaching his young mechanics to organize this reunion. A reception committee made up of the class officers arrived early. While they were waiting, Lloydette Bowen entertained her fellow officers with accounts of her experiences as a medical technologist. Sheila Blakely said that she enjoys her job as a legal secretary and Elizabeth Williams, who lunches with Sheila several times a week, had many humorous stories to tell of happenings in her office. Kathy Healy informed her friends that she is happily married and works part-time as an interior decorator.

Among the first to arrive were Dianne Mudarri and Caren Rubin, whose art works are on exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Arts. Coming all the way from California is Miss Muriel Stone, whose art work has enhanced the cartoon films of Walt Disney Studios.

Dwight DeAngelis who made his millions at an early age, has joined the "jet set" at a new resort in New Zealand. There he met Jerome Fuentes, Steven Dunlop, and John Fonseca, who have been traveling with the "set" for several months. Other classmates that may be found wandering around the world are Larry Cocuzzo, Richard Doucette, "Bucky" Buchanan, and Louis Brittle.

Back at Brighton High School, Walter Ashe has become the headmaster, while the very competent Anita Bornstein is now heading the guidance department. Patricia Bird and Faith Kondochriste have joined forces and are conducting day classes at the Little Miss Muffett School for Girls in suburban Boston. In sunny California, Janet MacKay is teaching elementary school. Janet Gorin and Cheryl Hall are teaching the "sixies" at Girls' Latin School where Maryellen Feeney is headmaster. Massachusetts College of Art is fortunate to have Joseph West as a teacher.

Next to enter are Elayne Choharis and Sheila Pendleton. Elayne is now under the care of Sheila who is a renowned psychologist. We hope that Sheila can cure Elayne's frustrations caused by nervous and indecisive passengers who travel the airways with her. Anita MacDonald, the pediatrician with stethescopes and lollipops, is now practicing in Jamaica Plain.

Karen MacLean is the most requested nurse at Mass. General Hospital. Could it be that she is the best nurse there is, or is it her micro-mini uniform? Donna Rooney, and L.P.N., and Vernice Upchurch, an R.N., have cured many patients with their pleasing bedside manner. After thorough examination, Oscar Ridley, the psychiatrist, has proven many of his former classmates to be quite sane, contrary to the beliefs of others. The medical secretary for the Head of Neurology at Mass. General is Jean Terp.

In the business world, Virginia Grant has made it to the top as President of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. Among the employees working under her are Lucille Cugini, Pat Bruno, Pauline Tatten, Nancy Drew, and Donna Guerrier.

In other parts of Boston, Frances Gwon, Faith Hulse, Joanne Zbinski, Kathleen McDonald, and Pamela Cushing have secured jobs in the secretarial field. Elaine Coronis and Gail Raphanella are now active members on the Board of Director's of Jordan Marsh Company. Lawrence and Mary Anderson are computer programmers working for the Federal Government.

In the executive offices at General Electric, Jackie Kiser and Cheryl Bugg are secretaries assisting Carol Long, head of the secretarial pool. Peter Robertshaw is now owner of the Flower Cab Company. His success is due to his experience in high school. John O'Donnell is now a successful lawyer practicing in the greater Boston area. Working for his firm are Cynthia Reid and Cynthia Rodliff.

Charles Southern's classmates were happy to hear that he has produced one of the fastest jet engines in the world called the 680X and is now living in style at Palm Beach. Ken Ohman, Francis Murphy, and John Shields have each taken part in the testing of Southern's engine. Working for T.W.A. as jet mechanics are Joe Swafford, Stephen Bradshaw, and Bernard Cavanaugh. James Willess now owns a Texaco Gas Station in Belmont.

Registry Inspector, James Christie, saw lawyer Peter Stam the other day while he was in court.

Paul McNeil is a very successful mechanical designer at General Motors.

Classmates that have made news lately in the world of sports are John Hoarty, whose superb pitching led the Red Sox to victory in the World Series, and John Leonard, the "Ace", who won the Indianapolis 500 in the "Healy Special." Larry Jones is now coaching the Celtics and Chris Vaianti is a member of the team.

All the guests have arrived and as they sit down to enjoy their dinner we are sure that memories of lunches shared together in the cafeteria of Brighton High fill their hearts. As the noise of voices and laughter rise, they sadly leave Longwood Towers knowing their school days can never return.

REFLECTIONS

1966-1969

As we approach our final days here at Brighton High School, we look back on the memories of the past three years that have filled both our hearts and minds. It all began in September of 1966, when we first entered the halls of Brighton as wide-eyed sophomores. The enormous size of the building amazed, and perhaps frightened us a little, but we soon became adjusted and prepared ourselves for our new task. The most difficult problem that we faced was the adjustment to our new teachers and schedules. After the first few months passed, the excitement of being in high school wore off as we buckled down to serious study. During this period one of our beloved teachers from the business course, Mr. Barry, was killed in an automobile accident. The suddenness of his passing made us acutely aware of how beneficial he was to the school and his students.

After we returned from Christmas vacation we were very surprised to find a public address system had been installed throughout the building. And we can never forget those invigorating exercises which we practiced every day during the homeroom period! Also, we were sorry to hear that Doctor Moore, acting head of the History Department, had decided to retire after forty-five rewarding years of teaching. The final terms of our sophomore year swept by quickly, and suddenly we found ourselves in the midst of our junior year. One of the major differences upon our return was the change in the faculty and the growing sophistication in the subjects they taught. It became probably our busiest and most difficult year, and one of the most memorable. The tragic assassinations of Rev. Martin Luther King, and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy marred our junior year. As we left for summer vacation, a solemn note of sadness prevailed; one that would be difficult to shed.

The beginning of our senior year was hindered by intellectual and social problems. College boards, job opportunities, interviews, college application, and the nerve-racking waiting for results occupied our minds and time. It was also a trying period throughout the country for there was a great deal of student unrest. Protest was shaking the high schools and colleges everywhere. After much distress, the high schools settled down and we were back to business, but with several changes. A difference in the dress code made it more comfortable for all, and international clubs were formed to awaken the students to their heritage. We were glad to return to the usual tasks of the senior class and decided to change the location of our prom from the Continental Hotel to Longwood Towers.

Our class voted almost unanimously for caps and gowns for graduation. Senior class elections approached and we began dilligent compaigning, which resulted in the election of Earl Garrett as our class president. Lloydette Bowen as our vice-president, Betty Williams and Sheila Blakely as secretaries, and Kathleen Healy as treasurer.

The newly formed drama club charmed us all with a delightful production of Charlie Brown's Christmas. The pageant was different from the previous years as we were entertained by several talented students as a suppliment to the usual manger scene. With deadlines facing both the Gothic and Towers staffs we came back from Christmas vacation with much work ahead of us. The year progressed rapidly and we enjoyed an extended February vacation due to the heaviest snowfall in the history of Boston. Now, we are making final preparations for class night and graduation. It is an exciting time, filled with the eager anticipation of going out, independantly, into the ever-changing world. We can never fully thank our faculty and friends whom we leave behind and who have helped us prepare ourselves to become useful citizens and the leaders of tomorrows' world. No matter where we go or what we do during our lifetime, we will fondly recall the many happy events and activities we have experienced during our three years at Brighton High School.

COACHES

Head Coach Bob McCarthy returned to Brighton this year bringing both innovations and a balanced team effort. Coach McCarthy played football at Boston English and starred on their hockey team. He later attended Lawrence Academy and played football at Notre Dame, Class of '59'. We're all proud of Mr. McCarthy and know that he did his best in the formation of the Bengals football squad.

Coach Tom Lerra, a History teacher in the co-operative course, attended Boston English where he starred in football and track. He furthered his education at Michigan State, where he played as a lineman on the varsity squad. Congratulations to Mr. Lerra for his fine effort in promoting confidence in the front line.

Mr. William O'Brien, a graduate of Northeastern University, where he played end for the 1962 undefeated Huskies, assisted in coaching the proud Brighton team. He was usually seen on the field telephone, discussing plays with the coaches as well as the players.

Credit should also be given to Mr. Sheehan, who teaches at B.H.S. and is a graduate of Boston College where he played quarterback; Mr. Hennessey, who teaches at Taft Junior High School and is a graduate of Holy Cross (ex-Patriot), and Mr. Mahoney, who also teaches at Taft and is a graduate of Boston University.

CHEERLEADERS

Brighton can boast of twelve pert misses that worked ceaselessly to keep our B.H.S. spirit on top. With sparkling eyes and bubbling enthusiasm, our cheerleaders inspired both athletes and students with their liveliness and sense of fair play they have done more than just cheer, they have improved Brighton's integrity, by putting their heart and pride into the school. Long after they have left the halls of B.H.S., their vibrant spirit will remain.

Look at that crowd!

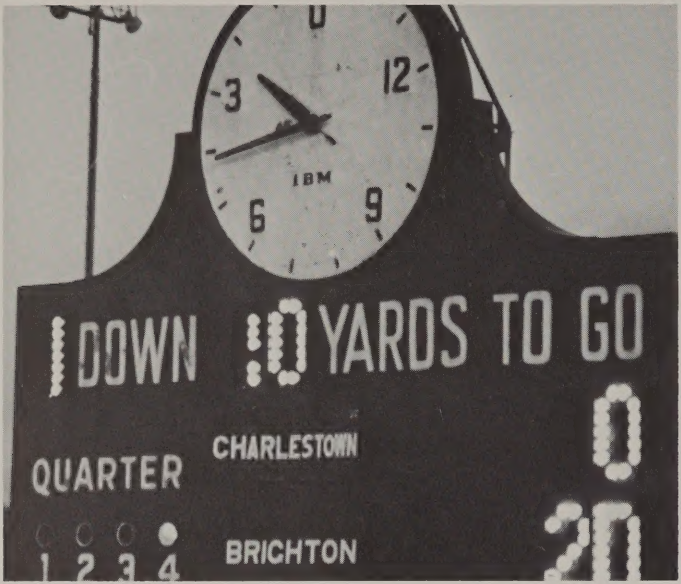
FOOTBALL



A confident but inexperienced Brighton squad took to the gridiron this year with high hopes of defeating Christopher Columbus in a non-league game. These hopes were shattered early in the game when Columbus took a commanding lead. The Brighton offense scored twice on a 1-yard plunge by Captain Earl Garrett and 60-yard run by Garrett. The Bengals, however, could not get back in the game and lost, 38-12.

In the following game the Bengals opened regular season play against Jamaica Plain. Earl Garrett returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for the score, and, with a few seconds left in the half, scored again on a 4-yard sweep. Jamaica Plain scored once in the half and Brighton scored once more in the fourth quarter to beat the plainsmen 20-8.

An overconfident Brighton eleven met Dorchester in the next game and were handed their first loss in League competition: 22-0.

South Boston, a perennial power in the District League, was surprised by the tenacity of the Brighton defense as the Southie scoring machine was held scoreless the first half. However, South Boston scored three times in the fourth quarter against the tired Brighton defense to win 22-0.

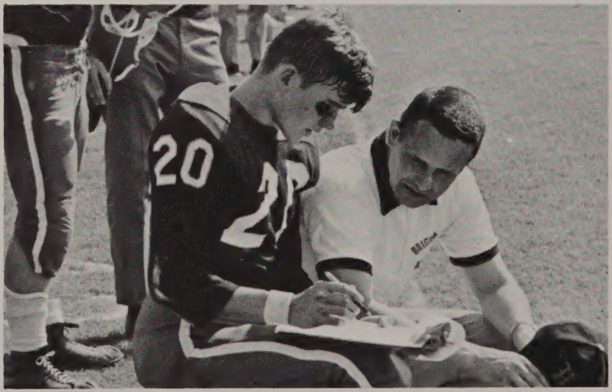
Touchdown?



"That was a ham and cheese on light rye, right?"

The Bengals suffered their fourth loss to Hyde Park 42-6 with Earl Garrett scoring the lone touchdown.

East Boston defeated Brighton 16-0, but the score was not indicative of the game. The Brighton defense was brilliant through most of the game, but the offense could not mount a sustained drive.

A fired-up Brighton team met Charlestown on a muddy turf at White Stadium. Earl Garrett opened the scoring with a burst of 6 yards over the left tackle for a touchdown. The Bengal defense held the Townies scorless throughout the game, and as icing on the cake, Earl Garrett scored on a 35 yard bomb from junior guarterback Paul Carney, and Co-Captain Bruce Bishop broke into the end zone after three successive plunges from the 20-yard line. The final score was 20-0 with the whole team giving their best effort.

In the last game of the season, Brighton met arch-rival Roslindale and were defeated 12-0 by the tough Rosie offense.

Although the team's record was poor, there were some bright spots. One of these was sophomore Chris Andrews, who intercepted seven passes and was named to the All-district team. Senior Co-Captains Bruce Bishop and Earl Garrett were also named to this team, and Garrett was named to the All-Conference and All-Scholastic teams. Senior guard John O'Donnell and junior tackle Jim Houhoulis anchored the line this year, and both were solid two-way performers. Senior defensive end Bill Buchanan also was a standout for the Bengals.

At the annual Booster Club banquet, the awards were given out. The awards were as follows: M.V.P. – Earl Garrett; Student Athlete-Bruce Bishop; Unsung Hero-John O'Donnell; Best J.V. Player-George Frangello; Most Improved Player-Peter Robertshaw; and Hot Dog Award-Rodney Morris and Dave Babcock. James Houhoulis was elected next year's captain. The following seniors will be lost at graduation: John O'Donnell, William Buchanan, Walter Ashe, Oscar Ridley, Demetrios Michaelides, Peter Robertshaw, Laurence Jones, John Leonard, and Earl Garrett.

Watch our Earl!

The Bengel's in a huddle.

BASKETBALL

For the first time since 1956, the Brighton Bengal quintet qualified for the Tech Tourney. They accomplished this with an impressive (12-5) record, which included wins against Jamaica Plain, a perennial powerhouse and Hyde Park, the defending District League Champs. Much of the credit should be given to first year coach, William Mahoney, Physical Education Director at the Taft. He instilled a winning attitude in his players and gave them the desire to overcome the many obstacles in their path. Brighton was eliminated from the Tech Tourney in the first round by Hyde Park. This defeat takes nothing away from the valiant effort that the Bengals showed throughout the entire season. Although Coach Mahoney is losing through graduation Captain Larry Jones, Earl Garrett, Wiley McDonald, Frank Sledge, John Walker, Robert Perry, and Ronald Johnson, he is still confident that the Bengals will continue their winning ways spearheaded by juniors Jerome Denny and Rodney Morris.

Good Luck Bengals of '70

TRACK

Under the superb leadership of Coach Thomas Lerra, the Brighton track team racked up an impressive (4-1) record. The tracksters were undefeated through the regular season and in a showdown with East Boston for the title the Bengals went down in defeat. It will be difficult for next years team to equal this record because the following trackmen are leaving: Co-Captains, Oscar Ridley and Michael Robinson, Peter Robertshaw, John Hoarty, John Leonard, Bill Buchanan, James Jackson and Peter DiBiasie.

Co-Captain Michael Robinson was tops in the city in the Class A High Jump and Peter Robertshaw came in first in the 300 yard run. Junior, Dave Babcock was the best Class A shot-putter in the league and he still has a year left.

HOCKEY

The players for Brighton's hockey team are: (1) Paul Carney, (3) Ricky Bowman, (5) Jack Laffey, (6) Steve Buckley, (7) John Demore, (9) Jack Marrota, (10) John Novak (high scorer for team), (11) Bill Swiecicki, (13) John Shay, (15) Tony Visoccki, and (18) George Frangello.

Defensive save by Novak!

Marrota makes his move.

Buckley takes shot.

Novak breaks up play.

A great save by Carney!!!

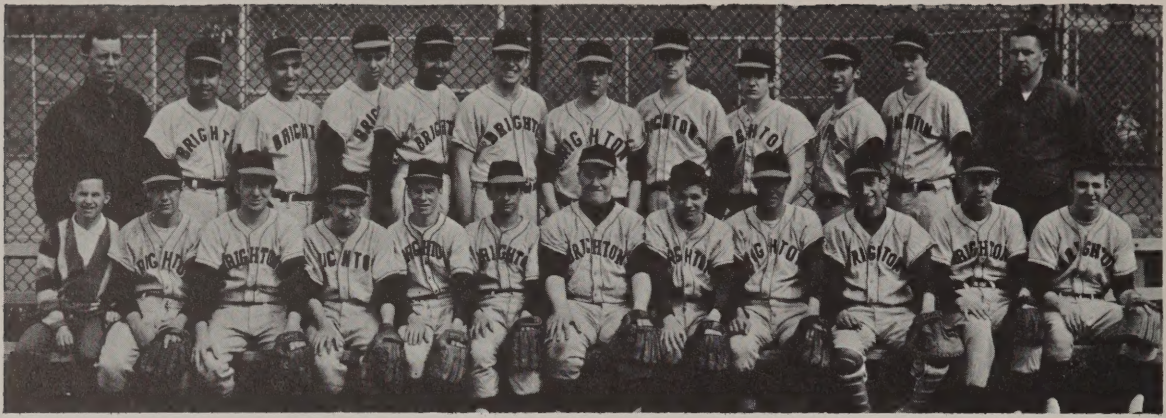
BASEBALL



ROW 1: Chuck Redman, Dean Rider, Gerry Grant, Anthony Checca, Wilbur Coates, Billy Agrios, Richie Kehoe, Bobby Trieger, Bobby Downes, Peter Robertshaw, James Costello, Tony Snadden. ROW 2: Mr. McCarthy, Keith Jackson, James Houhoulis, Anthony D'Isadoro, Gary Jackson, Robert Gudinas, John Hoarty, Dennis MacDonald, John Leonard, Steve Ross, David MacKay, Coach McCarthy.

Quick; tag that base!

John Hoarty waits for the ball.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1969 Gothic Staff would like to extend sincere thanks to the many people who contributed to the production of our yearbook.

To Mrs. Bates, who served so faithfully as our literary adviser.

To Miss Brennan, whose artistic ideas influenced our yearbook.

To Mrs. Campbell, who worked so hard to secure the advertisements.

To Mrs. Caraber, who patiently assisted us in the writing of the Will and the Prophecy.

To Mr. Reddy, Head of Data Processing, who checked countless names.

To Mr. Farnham, representative of W. J. Keller Inc., publisher of our yearbook, who came to our rescue so many times.

To Purdy our photographer, who rushed many pictures so we could meet our dead-lines.

To Mrs. Garvey, our adviser, whose guidance was indispensible, a very special thanks.
